

BC Pension Corporation appoints Erika Taylor as vice president, People and Culture

Victoria, BC – April 7, 2020 – BC Pension Corporation is pleased to announce the appointment of Erika Taylor as vice president of People and Culture. This is a new strategic and critical position that will help us put an even greater focus on our people as we embark on our next corporate strategy.

Erika has been the director of Employee Services since joining the corporation in April 2017. She is a people leader and determined to continue to make Pension Corporation a leader in the pension services industry and a workplace where staff can all contribute and thrive.

Erika has close to 20 years' experience developing and delivering talent management solutions supporting high-performing workforces and workplaces. She has held several senior roles across the BC Public Service, leading business transformation, HR operations, corporate talent programs and employee communications. She has a Master's Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies from Royal Roads University which focused on the study of human and organizational relationships and behaviour.

She will assume the VP role on April 14.

About BC Pension Corporation

BC Pension Corporation is one of the largest pension services providers in Canada and the largest in British Columbia. The corporation supports five pension plans with a total of 589,800 members.

In April 2012, Pension Corporation embarked on a comprehensive nine-year strategic plan. The plan, From 12 to 21: Our Way Forward, is an ambitious program of business transformation that supports high service levels and cost-effective delivery through better use of technology, improved business processes and continued attention to staff training and development.

For more information on BC Pension Corporation and the From 12 to 21 strategic plan, visit our website www.bcpensioncorp.ca

Media enquiries: media@pensionsbc.ca